Informing Ourselves
Meditation		Kirsty
Discussion	June Meeting – Prisoners of Conscience – Liam to lead
Ethical Activities	Discussed activities for July, August and September	July: Dry washing on line rather than use tumbler dryer August: Water garden in cool of the early morning or evening. This reduces evaporation September Use containers to store food rather than foil or cling film Barbara to put these in Talkabout
Informing Others
Charity of the year	International event  Coffee Morning	Kirsty will put article about the International Event in Talkabout Canute has offered his services to us again and the consensus was that we organise a similar event in 2 years time. David put forward the idea of an exhibition of parishioners Arts and Craft as a possible future fund raising/awareness raising event for our group. John will host this event on Wed. 24 th June after 9.00 Mass. Details to be discussed at next meeting
Pax Christi	Peace Issues	National J&P conference to be held at Swanwick 17-19 July Museum of Peace - Bradford
AOB	Southwark Justice and Peace  Sri Lanka Europe	Cathy suggested that we discuss one of the principles of Catholic Social Teaching (listed in the spring Southwark J&P newsletter) at future meetings Bishop Trip reminded us to keep the Tamils in our prayers. European elections 4 th June
